Steve Gaines Comedy

12 Noon (East Franklin Street Stage)

Steve Gaines is a husband of 20 years, father of 8, daytime punching bag for Corporate America and a Little League soccer coach. He’s the father of the year on the outside, but on the inside he’s a raging lunatic who takes the stage to get his revenge on a world that takes itself far too seriously.

A club and touring veteran who has worked with the likes of Christopher Titus, TVs Kevin Meaney, John Hinton, Vince Morris, Vic Clevenger and Keith Terry, to name a few, "Pops" discusses marriage, fatherhood, the miseries of life in a cubicle, bad family members, reality television, cowboys and the pathetic American government.

Acme Music with John LaFollette

1 p.m. (East Franklin Street Stage)

John LaFollette, a popular central Ohio vocalist/guitarist, captures the music of the 50s, 60s, 70s, Blues, Folk, and Rock and Roll. John's current venues include the Ohio State Fair, the Columbus Zoo, Coshocton's First Fridays, Northland International Festival, and civic and charitable events. This is the fifth year John is performing for the Circleville Pumpkin Show.

Gospel Harmony Boys

THE GOSPEL HARMONY BOYS
Christian Music Hall of Fame Artists

1:30 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Gospel Harmony Boys is a name that's been synonymous with gospel music for more than a 60 years. They are celebrating their 65th anniversary this year, and they continue to travel as one of the most respected names in gospel music today. They were the first gospel quartet to ever appear on a nationally televised program and have numerous songs that have reached the national music charts.

Nathan Boyce & the Sweet Talkers

2:45 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Nathan Boyce has had a passion for music from an early age. Growing up listening to the music that his father played from the likes of Tom Petty, the Beatles, Traveling Wilbury's and Bob Dylan quickly helped to shape musical role models for him to look up to. His passion for music eventually lead him to pick up the guitar. Nathan has been writing songs for years with past bands and musicians and has compiled soon-to-be hit songs for his first solo album, "Style and Grace".

Mothman

4:30 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Formed in 1990, Mothman is a band that enjoys performing many different styles of popular music. They try to perform over 100 shows a year, the bulk of them in clubs playing cover music ranging from lighter classic rock, blues, a few country numbers and everything in between. The band also stays active recording original music and looks forward to the summer/fall festival circuit.

Simba Jordan "Urban Cowboy"

6:30 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Growing up in the Columbus area, Simba's mother, a jazz singer who worked the clubs around Columbus, introduced him to music. "At home my brother and I would sing harmony with my mother to old jazz tunes, and at my grandparents home I would listen to albums by Kenny Rogers and Conway Twitty and watch TV shows like Dolly Parton and Hee Haw." Simba absorbed and enjoyed it all, but what he came to love the most was Country.

Mother Hubbard

9 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Mother Hubbard was born in 1998, formed by lead singer/lead guitarist Travis Brown. Travis grew up in central Ohio and is a self-taught musician. He was heavily influenced by the likes of Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix, Led Zeppelin, The Rolling Stones, Johnny Cash, The Who and many more. Jeff Meek brings a full and unique bass guitar sound to the band along with harmony vocals. Jeff has played with Travis for over 16 years. Mother Hubbard has played all over central Ohio for 19 years, including a trip to New York City playing in Greenwich Village. Some notable performances include opening for The Charlie Daniels Band and Georgia Satellites. The band brings an authentic, entertaining performance to each show.

SATURDAY, OCT. 21

The Raineys

1:30 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

The Rainey's return to the Pumpkin Show with their signature family vocals and great musicianship.

Combining dynamic original material with great songs of the past 40 years, the Rainey's have been a popular act in central Ohio for over a decade. The Raineys are Dave Rainey (guitar and vocals) and daughters Jenny (vocals) and Megan (piano, flute, accordion and vocals).

They are from Ashville. Don't miss a great opportunity to see this talented family on stage at the Circleville Pumpkin Show

Family Heritage

3 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

A night with Family Heritage is most "Uplifting & Encouraging". They are best-known for their spirit-filled singing and use of more than one genre of music to convey the message of Christ, which gives them an exclusive asset to the ministry of God. Family Heritage, the winner of the 2005 Horizon Award, 2006 Band of the Year Award, and winner of the 2008 Bluegrass Group of the Year by the Ohio Christian Music Association, have recorded 17 albums.

Don Ervin and Company

7 p.m. (West Main Street Stage)

Don Ervin is a vocalist who is comfortable singing in many genres, be it Broadway standards on stages across the country, or singing the National Anthem at civic or sporting events or singing classic rock and pop with his horn driven band, Don Ervin and Kicking Brass. Don is excited to share this collection of some of the best musicians in the Midwest to the Pumpkin Show stage. These musicians have played venues as intimate as jazz clubs in the Short North to sold out concerts at the Ohio Theatre. A little sassy but always classy…. this is Don Ervin and Kicking Brass.
