

Tim Fouch

October 12, 2017 · 🌐

It was Pumpkin Show eve and all through the land
The residents were excited to hear the Pumpkin Show band
The Mayor was up late
To practice his speech
I would soon be at Lindseys
Sayin "I'll have one of each!
The schools let the kids out
They like that just fine
And the start of the show
Will be sounded with chimes (Foresman)
We look forward each Fall
To the sounds of the bands
As they parade through the streets with the beloved Pumpkin Man
Theres Little Miss, Big Miss
And lots of cute babies
Arts and crafts, food booths
And pumpkin displays
Pumpkin pie, donuts, and fresh cut fries
Which pumpkin grower will take home the prize?
The Dynamic Mention is a hit every year
Theres pumpkin everything, including some beer!
Free entertainment and rides for a price
A homecoming of sorts
Is what makes Pumpkin Show nice
It's become quite the spectacle
One that's not often seen
And the crowds just can't wait
To hear who's named Queen
The Greatest Free show on Earth
Comes to town every year
Every third Wednesday of October
Folks from far and from near HAPPY PUMPKIN SHOW!

I wrote this poem on 10/11/17 What do you think of it?

   283

100 Comments 106 Shares

 Like

 Comment

 Share