The Pickaway Brass was formed in 1991 to perform at commencement for Circleville Bible College. The present membership consists of Jeff Mathew and Laura K. Bethel playing trumpet; Carol Geron, French horn; Jerry Voss, trombone; and Clifford Kerns, euphonion.

The ensemble has performed at several churches, Ameri-Flora, Bible college "Picnic with the Pops," Christmas open house at the May-Clarke museum, Barber-shop Christmas, and weddings.

Jeff Mathew, a graduate of Ohio State University has played with the Adelphi Community Band, Aladdin Shrine Band, and the Pumpkin Show Band. Laura Bethel, a graduate of Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, was a member of The Marching 110. Carol Geron has been an avid horn player for most of her life, studied for many years at Capital University Conservatory of Music and is currently a member of the horn choir. Jerry Voss has played in the University of Illinois 2nd Regimental band, Adelphi Band and the Pumpkin Show Band. Clifford Kerns, a graduate of Otterbein College and Boston University, studied arranging and conducting at the American University in Biarritz, France and currently conducts the Pumpkin Show Band.

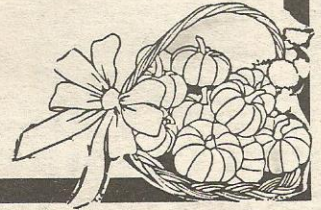

The Pickaway Brass plays a variety of music including Broadway show tunes, hymns, folk songs, marches and classical selections. The ensemble is available to play for events. For information contact Mary Jane Dean at 477-2100 or Cliff Kerns at 474-3711.
