

The Circleville Herald, Tuesday, October 20, 1998

Pickaway Brass Quintet to display talent

The Pickaway Brass Quintet was formed in 1991 to perform for commencement at Circleville Bible College. The present membership consists of Jeff Mathew and Laura K. Bethel, trumpet; Carol Geron. French horn; Jerry Voss trombone; and Clifford L. Kerns, tuba.

The quintet has performed at several area church services, Ameri-Flora, Bible College "Picnic with the Pops," Circleville Pumpkin Show, Christmas programs for area clubs and several weddings.

Jeff Mathew, a graduate of Zane Trace High School and Ohio State University, has played in the Adelphi Community Band, Aladdin Shrine Band and the Pumpkin Show Band. Laura Bethel, a graduate of Logan Elm High School and Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, was a member of bands in both schools and a member of the Pumpkin Show Band. Carol Geron has been an avid horn player for most of her life, studied for many years at Capital University Conservatory of Music and is currently a member of the Horn Choir. Jerry Voss has played in the Fulton High School Band, the University of Illinois Second Regimental Band, Adelphi Community Band, Fayette County Band, Olivedale Band and the Pumpkin Show Band. Clifford Kerns, a graduate of Otterbein College and Boston University, studied arranging and conducting at the American University in Biarritz, France. Kerns is retired from teaching music in the Circleville Public Schools and is the present conductor of the Pumpkin Show Band.

The Pickaway Brass Quintet play a variety of music including

PICKAWAY BRASS QUINTET

Broadway Show music, hymns, folk songs, marches and classical selections.

The band will be performing from 4 to 4:45 p.m. Saturday on the Pinckney Street stage.