Hey Gang

It's been a great Pumpkin Show so far.

I really appreciate everyones work.

Tonight is the BIG parade.

I know the weather report is not very good, but me, being an optimist, think it is going to rain this afternoon, but clear up by tonight's BIG parade.

Don't forget we changed what we are playing tonight to:

- Allied Honor and
- Saints in Concert.

Let's try to have a great turnout on the float tonight and at the concert tomorrow night!
