RESPONSIVE READING: THE ROSE GROWS BEYOND THE WALL By A.L. Frick

Chaplain: Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light.
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

Congregation: As it grew and blossomed, fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came through a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Chaplain: Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride.
It followed the light through the crevice's length,
And unfolded itself on the other side.

Congregation: The light, the dew, the brooding view
Were found the same as they were before:
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Chaplain: Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive:
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Congregation: Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore.
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.
