PRACTICE LIST

1. Canadian Brass Book: All You Need is Love

Just to be more specific, unless we make other changes (or I have forgotten some previous discussion), the following is my tentative plan for what songs from the book we can focus on at this point.

And no, I wish I was a strong enough player to pull off "Penny Lane" in this arrangement, but I am not...yet.

- a) "All You Need is Love": yes, but we will use the computer version we have made.
- b) "Blackbird": Yes
- c) "Come Together": Not right now
- d) "Eleanor Rigby": Yes
- e) "I Am the Walrus": Yes
- f) "I Want to Hold Your Hand": Yes
- g) "Michelle": Yes
- h) "Penny Lane": Not right now
- i) "She's Leaving Home" Yes
- j) "When I'm 64": Yes
- k) "With a Little Help From My Friends": Yes

WINTER WEATHER:

Especially with the unpredictability of winter weather, the roads for Becky may be great, but for Jarrad and I they are covered with ice, or the reverse. Or there can even be a major difference just between my house and Laura's.

Practice is not worth driving on unsafe roads, so just contact me (if you can) to let me know if that is what you experiencing at your place. Or if it is just plain too cold for anyone to want to go out that night.

I will try to contact all of you early enough to cancel practice if I catch in advance that some kind of storm/weather may be coming, but feel free to check with me if you have any questions.

We do not have texting on our cell phones, but you can leave a voice mail if we don't pick up when you call.
