MATTHEW AND HOLLY WILSON

Campbell-Wilson

Holly Elizabeth Campbell, daughter of Paul and Barbara Ellis Campbell of Circleville and Matthew Ryan Wilson, son of Bob and Donna Wilson of Circleville, were united in marriage Dec. 27 at Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Don Bachman, Jr. officiating.

The bride, presented in marriage by her parents during the wedding ring candlelight ceremony, wore an ivory silk gown with a chapel-length train. The bride's dress featured a fully beaded bodice accented with gold threads. Her veil was fingertip length and was accented with pearls. She carried a bouquet filled with white roses, gardenias, holly sprigs, evergreens and mistletoe.

Jennifer Campbell Wagner and Emily Anne Campbell, sisters of the bride, served as matron and maid of honor. Karin Carol Surdovel, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaid. All wore long burgundy print gowns and carried bouquets of peach colored roses, holly sprigs, pepper berries and Christmas greenery.

Nick Wilson, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Kevin Kane and Jason Herbert.

All bouquets and boutonnieres were made by family friend Nancy Wadley.

A dinner reception followed the ceremony at Noecker Hall. Music was provided by Pickaway Brass.

The bride is a 1994 graduate of Circleville High School and a 1998 graduate of Capital University. She is a teacher at Thomas Jefferson Elementary School in Virginia.

The groom is a 1993 graduate of Circleville High School, a 1997 graduate of Denison University and is currently a law student at the University of Virginia Law School.

The couple reside in Charlottesville, Va.
