Subject: Gazebo Gathering

Hey crew,

Great practice last night. Few details about this coming Sunday.

Concert starts at 5, please be there at 4:30.

We will be wearing our new "Green" pumpkin show shirts with black bottoms. If you have a size issue or some other issue with your shirt, let me know.

Please bring a stand, but if this is an issue, let me know. (We have to provide chairs. I got that covered.)

We have been invited to dinner and fellowship at PBJ in Ashville after the concert, again. The dinner is for members and their families. A big THANK YOU to Pam and Mike for this special time together.

Questions? Give me a text, call or email. Our program is attached.

Thanks, You're the best!

Dave
