Hey gang,

Tomorrow nights performance at the Pickaway County Library is still on.

The weather looks a little iffy, but they have facilities inside if it rains.

Please be there at 6 PM. Our performance starts at 6:30, but I would really like to take some time to warm up since we missed some practices.

Our concert will be the same one we did at Mt. Oval.

Bring your own stands,

Regular uniform.

Need anything or anything I need to know call, text or email me.

See You There
Dave
